How we created 800 Series OCLV Carbon Necessity is the mother of invention. Like a lot of other big tech developments, 800 Series OCLV Carbon was created to solve a problem—we wanted to make our aero bikes lighter. Aero tube shapes take more material to make, so they are generally heavier than typical tubes.

1988 Trek Brochure

The Trek 800 is considered a good entry level (non-suspension) mountain bike. It's not made with fancy components (See 2nd link for specs on a 2003 model) but is ideal for urban streets and hard-pack trails. It isn't the fanciest bike, but it's built to last and if it fits your needs there is no reason to trade it in.
